

Marc Huestis Presents

WAR

IS

OVER

CREATE PEACE

An All-Star Evening of Live Poetry, Prose, Laughter, Music and Performance

Benefitting ARTISTS UNITED

CASTRO THEATRE, JULY 18, 2003

WAR IS OVER Create Peace

An All-Star Evening of Live Poetry, Prose, Music, Laughter and Performance Benefitting Artists United

CASTRO THEATRE, FRIDAY, JULY 18,
7:30 PM GALA; 10 PM CELEBRITY DESSERT RECEPTION

Governments can be masters of war, but artists can use their gift to create unique environments expressing peace. Join us as the best and the brightest, including Grammy, Emmy, Oscar, Pulitzer, and Golden Globe nominees and winners, combine talents live & on-stage to do just that. Produced by empress-io Marc Huestis.

Scheduled to Appear Live:

Janeane Garofalo
Hector Elizondo
Mike Farrell

Featuring in-person Karen Black as Laura Bush in an exciting preview reading of the first scene from Tony Kushner's new play "Only We Who Guard the Mystery Shall Be Unhappy"

Also Live On-Stage:

Debora Iyall (lead singer from ROMEO VOID)—Music with Joan Jeanrenaud (formerly of Kronos
Quartet) and Peter Dunne (formerly of Pearl Harbor and the Explosions)
Imam Morteza Bakkur—Music
Jay Rosenblatt—Film
Jewelle Gomez—Poetry
Jumping Buddha Ensemble—Music
Maria Muldaur—Music
Mark Eitzel—Music
Will Durst—Comedy
Youth Speaks Slam Poets—
Performance Art/Hip Hop Poetry

TICKETS: $27.50 Gala
$60 Reception & Gala (preferred seats)
Available by calling 415.863.0611, e-mail hostess2@earthlink.net or @ Different Light Books, 489 Castro St, S.F.

Artists United was born as a committee of artists opposed to the invasion of Iraq. Through celebrity appearances on television, radio and in print, the organization now encourages public debate, engages opinion makers and concerned citizens to raise the profile of progressive issues pertinent to the well being of people here and abroad in order to preserve the values that once made America the hope of the world. (www.artistsunitedwww.org)

ADAGIO

GUARDIAN